2. From the next screen add your name and your email address and click Join Meeting.

A screenshot of the Webex join meeting form. It features two input fields: the first contains the name 'Taryn' and the second contains the email address 'taryn.hopkins@piedmont.org'. Below the email field is a checked checkbox labeled 'Remember me'. At the bottom is a large green button labeled 'Join Meeting' with a dropdown arrow to its right.

3. Next, choose your audio and video connection (Call me at option is preferred) and click Join meeting. You will receive a call from WebEx when you join the meeting. Mute yourself when you are not speaking.

Click  if you want to be seen when you join.

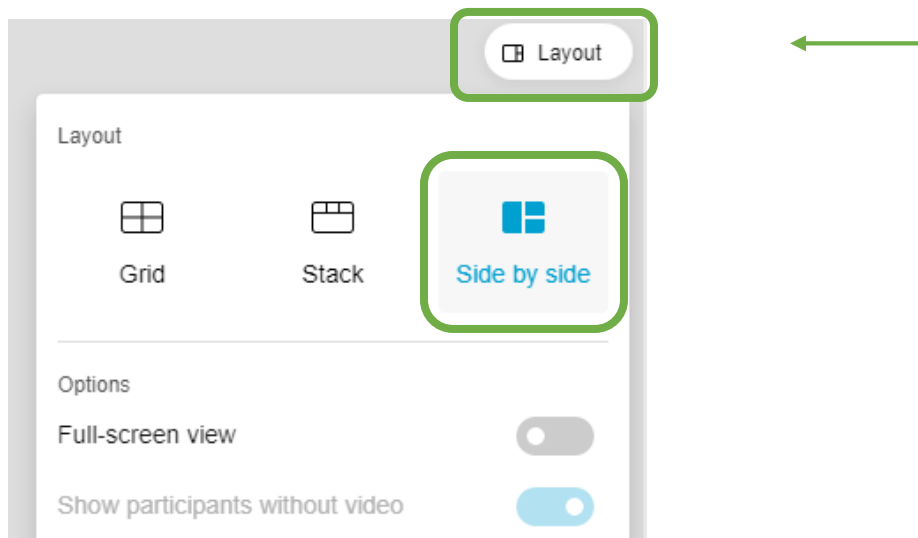

Audio and video access points do not need to be on the same device (i.e. you can use a laptop or desktop for video, and use your cell phone for audio).

If you hear an echo or feedback it means you have joined with two audio sources (phone and computer). Make sure you mute yourself in both places if this occurs. Using the Call me at feature eliminates this.

Use the “side by side” view for optimal viewing of the presenter and content. Access these options by choosing Layout in the upper right corner of your screen. While using Side-by-Side View or Floating View, click  to switch the focus between the shared content and the video of the active speaker.

To get Full Screen view:

- click on the X in the upper right corner of your screen, OR
- click on the Layout and choose full screen

Mute or Unmute Yourself

To mute or unmute yourself, click Mute  or Unmute .

- Use computer audio (default)—Use your computer with a headset or speakers.
- Call me—Enter a phone number and Webex calls you. Depending on your host's Webex plan, you may or may not see this option.
- Call in—If you prefer to use your phone for audio, dial in when the meeting starts. A list of the global call-in numbers is available in your meeting invite. Choose this option if your Internet connection is slow.
